A Law Which Greatly Benefits Michigan Roads.

The Michigan road law, providing that the users of wide wagon-wheel tires shall perhaps not a novelty to buyers have a rebate of one-half of their road tax, is an ingenious inducement which works great advantage to the taxpayer, really good suit of serge for so to the roads and, by consequence, to the low a figure is uncommon.

We have such a suit, made for mid-summer use. The quality and strength of the fabric, as well as the low price, recommend it as an extra garb for hot weather.

In the matter for road reform the first essential seems to be the widening of the tires of the vehicles. The general adoption of this would be a long step of itself in the direction of perfect roads. Without it perfect roads are practically impossible."
